Bethlehem at Barton ...a socially distanced Nativity

Christmas 2020 is going to be different & the annual St. Michael's Barton Crib Service is no exception. We can't cram ourselves into the church or sing carols with gusto, but we still want to celebrate the birth of Jesus.

Barton House on Christmas Eve

from 3.00pm: let us know what time you want to come

Carols, crafts, readings, food & drink and a familiar cast of characters... all from the comfort of your own car (about 15 minutes).

Barton House is on the north side of the B5320 opposite the road to Celleron.

VICAR'S LETTER

Dear Friends,

Hope you are well and keeping safe.

At this time of year I settle down to read Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol". Reading this story has been a habit of mine for as long as I can remember and it is possibly my favourite book from my favourite author. I suspect we are all very familiar with what happens in the story.

Essentially Scrooge has to go through 3 conversions, enacted by the visitation of 3 ghosts, before he is transformed from someone who hates life and people into someone who is bursting with a love of life and a profound, deep, generous love of others (particularly the unfortunate). Martin Luther said that there are 3 conversions for every Christian to go through "The conversion of the heart. The conversion of the mind. Finally, the conversion of the wallet."

For Scrooge there is great truth in Luther's words. That conversion of the wallet is not just about money but, for me, it is more about becoming a person whose whole life is brimming over with a spirit of generosity. A life brimming over with generosity of love, friendship, forgiveness, kindness, protection, possessions and a willingness to be sacrificial in all that you do. Which to me sounds a bit like Jesus. Essentially we are called to be like Jesus in all that we do.

For Scrooge his conversions, along with his new found love of people and life, made him say "I will honour Christmas in my heart, and try to keep it all the year."

What would it be like if we were to keep the spirit of Christmas every day of the year? What difference would it make?

Christmas, for me and my family, is a time of extra kindness. A time of extra laughter and hope. A time for extra generosity and, especially with lots of family around, a time for extra forgiveness when we begin to get on each other nerves (particularly because I'm a sore loser when we play board games!).

Now, in my role as a priest, I'm acutely aware that for some people Christmas can be difficult especially if family members are missing or it is spent alone. However, the point of the story of Scrooge is that Christmas, by and large, is a time when the 'extra' attributes of the generosity of love to celebrate the birth of Jesus are shown.

Again, we, like Scrooge, are called to live with that extra generosity of love in our hearts every day of the year.

On that first Christmas Day the angel said to the shepherds in the field "Fear not, a saviour has been born to you this day." Those of you who know me will have heard me say dozens of times that God, in the Bible, says to you and me "Don't be afraid, fear not, do not be anxious" no fewer than 366 times to be precise - that's one for every day of the year including leap years. Every morning when you awake Jesus is there smiling, holding out his hand and whispering to you "Be not afraid of what this day may bring." He does this because he knows how hard life can be.

Especially during this time of pandemic.

Knowing Jesus is there for me every day gives me a renewed confidence to live, breathe, rejoice and try to show "extra" generosity no matter what comes. Knowing that Jesus overcame the very worse that life can throw at Him tells me too that with my hand in His everything will be well.

In 1939 King George's Christmas and new year message quoted a poem by Haskins which said this: "And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:

"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."

And he replied:

"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.

That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."

Have a truly blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year and may the spirit of Christmas be honoured by you and me every day of 2021.

With much love

Lee
