Remembrance

VICAR'S LETTER

Dear Friends

Hope you are well.

Autumn is a season of remembrance. It is a time to remember, with thanks to God, for the harvest He sends to us. It is a time to remember when the leaves begin to fall that they in some way remind us of the many millions of men and women who have fallen in wartime. It is a time to remember, as the days draw in, the beauty and glory of the summer that has been.

In the Bible God encourages us to remember the truth that He is always there for us.

In Psalm 77 we hear this: "I will remember the deeds of the Lord; Yes I will remember your works"

The memory is an amazing thing. It can provoke passion, pain and pleasure. Eeacalus, the Greek playwright, said that "Memory is the mother of all wisdom". We sometimes learn best when we look back at our success and failure and consider what they teach us.

On 233 separate occasions in the Bible God speaks of remembering. God often asks us to use our memory to redeem our present situation. The author of Psalm 77 is in a very low place. The author describes feelings of lostness, sadness and being unloved. It is a very dark place where they are.

However, a change in the Psalm occurs when the author, in the midst of their darkness, as an act of will, calls to mind all the deeds God has done in the past. All the times God has acted and brought hope: "I will remember the deeds of the Lord; I will remember your miracles. I will meditate on your works and consider your mighty deeds. You are the God who performs miracles. You display power and redeem your people" Psalm 77: 11-15

The psalmist is effectively saying "I might not be able to feel you right now but I know you've acted in the past and because of this I know you will do it again".

J M Barrie said: "God gave us memories so that we can have roses in December"

We can do the same as the Psalmist in this season of remembrance. When life is tough we can remember all those times that God has spoken to us in the past, when He's answered prayers, when he's given guidance and when He's seen us through seemingly impossible situations.

As we recall those memories hold fast to them because they are our assurance that He will do them again.

Every blessing
Lee

Joint PCC meeting — Wednesday 15th September St. Paul's Church 7.30pm

This meeting, for members of the PCCs of the three churches in this benefice, is the first step in the process for the appointment of a new priest in charge for this benefice. The post, which will be advertised in the Autumn, will be for a half-time appointment as vicar of the three parishes of the benefice linked to the role of Ullswater Mission Community Leader. Until recently the expectation was that Canon Gary Cregeen who has been supporting Dacre and Watermillock Parishes would become priest of Barton Benefice after a permanent appointment was made at Dacre. However, Canon Cregeen has been recently appointed to a new post in Chichester Diocese thus necessitating the reopening of the appointment process. We are grateful to Ven Lee Townend for his ministry as Interim Incumbent until a new permanent appointment is made.
